TEXAS BAR FOUNDATION GIVES MARCY HOGAN GREER STATEWIDE RECOGNITION

Marcy Hogan Greer of Austin received the 2021 Gregory S. Coleman Outstanding Appellate Lawyer Award from the Texas Bar Foundation. The Gregory S. Coleman Outstanding Appellate Lawyer Award was established in 2011 in honor and memory of Gregory S. Coleman. The award celebrates the high ideals and standards that Coleman demonstrated in his appellate practice and personal life. The recipients exhibit an outstanding appellate practice while maintaining a strong commitment to providing legal services for the underserved. The award recognizes dedication to mentoring young attorneys as well as a strong moral compass to guide both professional and personal pursuits.

Marcy Hogan Greer is the Managing Partner of Alexander Dubose & Jefferson in its Austin, Texas, office. Her appellate and trial practice includes class-action and mass-tort cases, including federal and state multidistrict litigation. She has handled class actions of all types and envisioned and created the American Bar's best-selling book, A Practitioner's Guide to Class Actions, serving as National Editor for its original edition (2010) and second edition (2017), and will be National Co-Editor of the Third Edition anticipated in 2021.

In June 2017, Marcy was awarded the Louise B. Raggio award given by the Texas Bar Association's Women and the Law Section to recognize an attorney who has actively addressed the needs and issues of women in the legal profession and the community.

Marcy was elected as the Diversity Officer of the Tort Trial & Insurance Practice Section of the American Bar Association (2019-2021), and is currently the TIPS liaison to the ABA Diversity Center. She has also been active in the State Bar of Texas Appellate Section—on its Strategic Planning Committee (current), Chair of the Section in 2009-10, and Course Director for the 33rd Annual Advanced Appellate Course in 2019.

Marcy was elected to the American Law Institute and is a member of the by-invitation-only Federation of Defense and Corporate Counsel. She currently serves on the Executive Committee of the Center for Women in Law, as well as a Trustee, Greenhill Fellow, and former President of the Texas Supreme Court Historical Society; a Member of the Board of Governors for the Bar Association of the Fifth Federal Circuit; a member of the Texas Supreme Court Advisory Committee; the Secretary and a Board Member for Marathon Kids.

After completing a clerkship for the Honorable Carolyn Dineen King of the U.S. States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, Marcy joined the law firm of Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. (now Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP), where she practiced for almost twenty years and was a partner for ten years. She has been Board Certified in Civil Appellate Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization since 1997.

Ms. Greer will be publicly recognized at the Texas Bar Foundation Annual Dinner held on June 18, 2021 at the Omni Hotel in Fort Worth.

Founded in 1965 by attorneys determined to assist the public and improve the profession, the Texas Bar Foundation has become the largest charitably-funded bar foundation in the country. The Texas Bar Foundation relies on the contributions of its Fellows to improve the lives of Texans. To date, through the generosity of the Fellows, the Texas Bar Foundation has awarded more than $22 million in grants to numerous organizations across the state.

Election to the Fellows of the Texas Bar Foundation is one of the highest honors that can be bestowed upon a member of the State Bar of Texas, representing the top one-third of one percent of Texas attorneys. Selection is based on an outstanding record in the legal profession as well as proven commitment to support the community at large.
